

Government of Nepal
MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
Kathmandu, Nepal

Press Release

The Rt. Honourable Sher Bahadur Deuba, Prime Minister of Nepal, has sent a congratulatory message to His Excellency Mr. Shinzo Abe, Prime Minister of Japan today on his re-election as the Prime Minister of Japan.

In his message, the Rt. Honourable Prime Minister has highlighted excellent state of bilateral relations between Nepal and Japan characterized by friendship, understanding and mutual cooperation. The Prime Minister has further stated that democracy and people to people relations remain the dynamic dimensions to further nurturing the friendly relations.

Also in the message, the Rt. Honourable Prime Minister has happily applauded the reliable friendship between Nepal and Japan standing together in times of needs and difficulties. While appreciating the Government and people of Japan for their immense goodwill, continuous support and cooperation to the socio-economic development of Nepal, Prime Minister Deuba has expressed his confidence that the bilateral relations would be further widened and deepened in the days to come.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Kathmandu, Nepal
02 November 2017

